Global Hunger Sunday Sunday, October 11

On Global Hunger Sunday, join us in giving hope to the hopeless and strength to the weary in the United States and around the world.

Church Family,

Your generosity in the midst of a global health crisis, economic turbulence, political and racial tensions, and ongoing coastal storms (just to name a few factors!) has blessed and challenged me as your pastor more than I can communicate. You have constantly embodied what Paul teaches in passages such as 2 Corinthians 9:11:

"You will be enriched in every way for all generosity, which produces thanksgiving to God through us."

This past Sunday, I took Judah to help me do some grocery shopping for the LBA Food Bank, which our Acteens collected Sunday afternoon (thanks to all who participated). As Judah helped me gather items into our cart, he asked why we were grocery shopping for other people. I answered, "Because giving to others is one of the best ways to give thanks for what God has given to us."

Church, God has given us immeasurably more than we can communicate or even understand - but I thank you for giving thanks to Him by giving so graciously to others.

God bless you,

Nathan VanHorn
